

Please desist from trying to overturn the New Jersey Do Not Call law. I for one do not miss the uninvited intrusions to my privacy by vendors trying to sell me items I don't want or need.

My family especially likes the silent telephone during the dinner hour.

If anything the Federal do not call law should be changed to match the New Jersey version.